Just One Spot Left: Seven Date Nights (Marriage Course)

"The Marriage Course was not only enjoyable but also very helpful in assessing the strengths and weaknesses of our marriage. We have known each other since we were 13 yet had not discussed many of the questions we were asked to consider in this study. The video segments and the one-on-one discussions led us to a deeper understanding and appreciation for each other. We highly recommend this course to couples of all ages." Lynn and George Edwards
