SUNDAY SERMON SERIES: JESUS IN HIS OWN WORDS

Critics and scholars have written countless words about Jesus, making claims for who he is and what he accomplished. But what does Jesus have to say about himself? On seven different occasions in John's gospel Jesus makes a stunning claim about himself, each one prefaced with the simple statement: "I am." Join us as we will explore these statements and the rich truths they reveal about him. Join us as we hear from Jesus in his own words.

Wednesdays, Jun. 3, 10, 17 | 6:15pm | Courtyard Classroom

Join us for a summer Bible study to explore the key sermons in the book of Acts to see how the apostles proclaimed the gospel in a complex and changing world. As we examine their message, methods, and reliance on the Holy Spirit, we'll discover how these same truths shape the way we live, speak, and engage our own culture today.

MOVE-UP SUNDAY FOR KINDERGARTNERS AND 6TH GRADERS

Sunday, Jun. 7 | 9am & 11am | Courtyard Classroom & Sanctuary

RISING KINDERGARTNERS WILL JOIN TRINITY KIDS WORSHIP

Children entering kindergarten in the fall will begin joining the worship service instead of heading to the Young Children's Wing. Partway through the service, they'll be dismissed from the sanctuary to continue learning and growing in Kid's Worship with our Trinity Kids leaders.

RISING 6TH GRADERS WILL REMAIN IN THE SANCTUARY

As they step into middle school, rising 6th graders will begin a new rhythm on Sundays—joining their parents for the entirety of the worship service. It's an exciting transition into a deeper level of connection and engagement in church life.

HELP SUPPORT REFUGEE HOPE PARTNERS' BACK-TO-SCHOOL SALE

In the spring, the group will take a deeper look at the Lord's Prayer, moving beyond routine recitation to a more meaningful, heartfelt prayer life, and exploring what it reveals about God's character, His Kingdom, and our daily walk with Him.
